

It takes nearly a full year just to raise the seedlings.

In December, we carefully select the healthiest seedlings and divide the plants. Throughout the year, we tend to them in the nursery beds and transplant them into pots twice to increase the number of seedlings. We regularly remove weeds and manage irrigation, carefully nurturing them into strong, healthy seedlings.