

In the late Edo period, the history of our farm began when the first-generation owner, Juhei Hatano, settled in this area, now Ogawa Town, Uki City, Kumamoto Prefecture.

At the time, the farm mainly cultivated rice. Taking advantage of its location near the sea, it was also engaged in seaweed farming.